

Wear Your Words

Teen Workshops & Exhibition

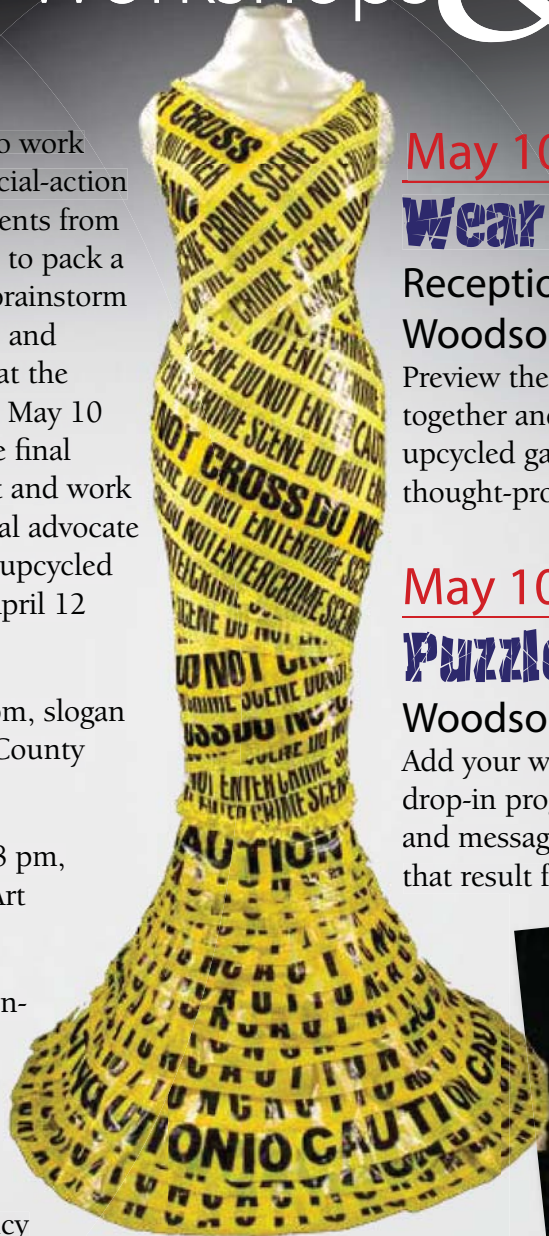

Area teens are invited to work together to create social-action statements – upcycled garments from recycled materials, designed to pack a social-action punch. Teens brainstorm slogans and create garments and accessories to be presented at the Woodson Art Museum from May 10 through June 15. During the final work session, students meet and work with artist and environmental advocate Nancy Judd, who's ReDress upcycled artworks are on view from April 12 through June 15.
