

Sculptor Gene Reineking Artist Residency

Tuesday – Sunday November 8 – 13

Wisconsin sculptor and Birds in Art artist Gene Reineking's striking sculptures of avian and animal subjects utilize sparse, clean lines. Reineking's affinity for stone and wood informs his designs, which highlight the natural color and texture of his chosen materials. Reineking uses only hand tools to create his minimalist soapstone sculptures. During a weeklong residency, Reineking works with students during class visits to the Museum and leads hands-on workshops and public presentations.

November 12 Saturday 10:30 am – Noon

Art Beyond Sight

Individuals with low vision or blindness join sculptor Gene Reineking and Museum educators for a multisensory experience in the Birds in Art galleries with hands-on art making inspired by Reineking's soapstone carving.

November 10 Thursday 5:30 – 6:30 pm
