

Botanical Art

Wendy Brockman Artist Residency

Thursday – Sunday, August 1 – 4

Known and admired for her elegant and exacting depictions of bird nests, Minnesota-based artist Wendy Brockman shares her expertise and enthusiasm for botanical art during a gallery walk, studio workshop, and in-gallery painting demonstration complementing Botanical Art Worldwide: America's Flora.

August 1 Thursday 5:30 – 6:30 pm

Art 101 Guest Artist Gallery Walk

Join Wendy Brockman for insights into the artworks, aesthetics, and subjects featured in America's Flora. Wendy also will discuss the history of botanical art and the varied approaches artists take when depicting these subjects.

August 1 Thursday 5:30 – 7 pm

Hands-on Art

Drop in to create signature artworks, inspired by Flora, Fauna, Font, using animal and plant stencils to illustrate a personalized monogram.

August 2 & 3 Friday & Saturday 10 am – 4 pm

Botanical Sketchbook Journals

Teen & Adult Workshop

Join Wendy for a two-day, mixed-media workshop combining botanical drawings and typography to create distinctive botanical sketchbook journals.

Participating teens and adults sharpen drawing and painting skills while exploring science and creative expression.

Working in various mediums, participants incorporate their own interests and style as Wendy guides them in creating striking artwork layered with meaning and personal narrative. Fee: $85 for members; $100 for non-members; includes most materials and lunch both days. Information about materials to bring will be provided.

August 4 Sunday 1 – 2 pm

Artist Demonstration

Ask questions and observe Wendy Brockman as she develops a detailed watercolor botanical painting amid America's Flora artworks.
