

Sculpture Seek & Find

- ☞ Six sculptures are waiting to be found.
- ☞ Solve a riddle to find one; solve six riddles to find them all.
- ☞ Once you solve a riddle, add the sculpture's location to the map on the back.

Tim Cherry
Flat Fawn, 2010

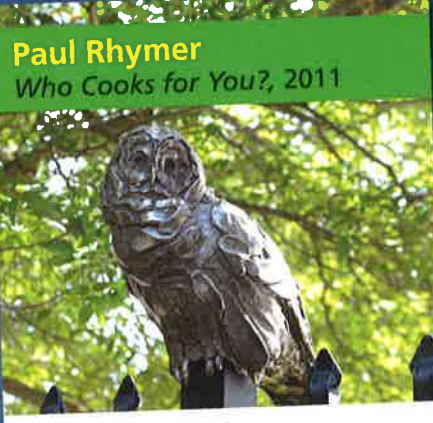

I am an itty-bitty fawn,
lying on the ground.
It's a secret where I'm found.

Ross Matteson
Creepier, 2007

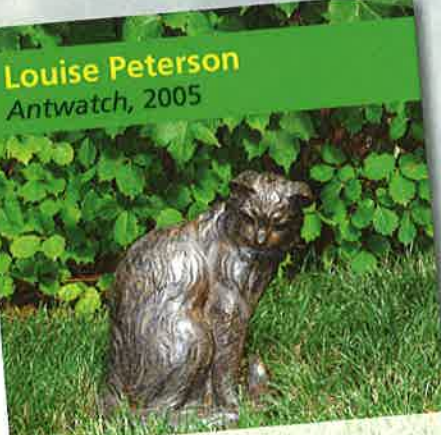

I am a small bird,
sitting way up high,
I wonder if you know that I watch you come and go?

Paul Rhymer
Who Cooks for You?, 2011

I am a curious owl, asking, "Who cooks for you?"
Once you enter the gate,
walk a step or two.

Louise Peterson
Antwatch, 2005

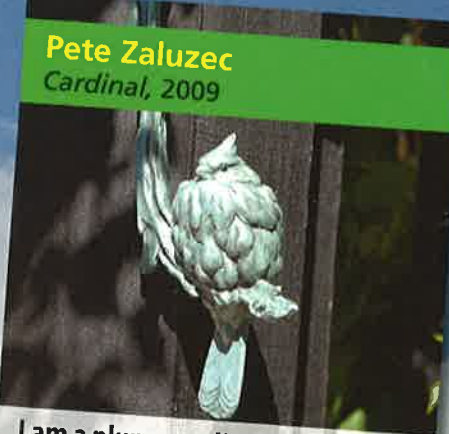

I am a cat;
what do you think about that?
I sit by a gate
as visitors' cars wait.

Don Rambadt
Nuthatch, 2008

I am a nuthatch,
perched on a beam.
Heralding this location is my job, it would seem.

Pete Zaluzec
Cardinal, 2009

I am a plump cardinal,
but I'm not red.
Take a rest in the arbor and look above your head.
