Director of Client Services, Hmong American Center

Nasiah Ntawv Herr is a Hmong immigrant from Laos and is currently the Director of Client Services at the Hmong American Center in Wausau, Wisconsin. Herr is a board member of New Beginnings and helps manage From Laos to America also known as the Hmong Museum in Wausau. In 2018, she was featured on the PBS program Lidia Celebrates America: A Heartland Holiday Feast. Herr is the mother to two children and took her name upon a second marriage, after a failed first marriage. Previously, she was known as Latricia-Kate Ntxawv Thao. Being Hmong, she holds an interest in cultural anthropology and a deep desire to learn about her roots and heritage.
