SCOPE

This exhibition is open to art educators teaching in public, parochial, and homeschools in central and north central Wisconsin. Its purpose is to recognize and display the original and creative artwork by students in grades 9 - 12.

ENTRY GUIDELINES

Quantity

Each teacher, regardless of the number of classes taught, may enter up to four artworks.

Originality

Each artwork entered must be original. Artworks produced from pre-designed kits are not acceptable. If the artwork is the result of an assignment using pre-existing materials (such as photographs or printed materials), please provide an explanation on the Entry Tag and Master List (see below).

Medium

Artwork created in any medium is acceptable.

Entry Tags & Master List

Each artwork must have a complete and legible Entry Tag attached. Tags can be handwritten or completed through the fillable PDF. Tags for three-dimensional artworks may be taped to the object or placed inside.

Teachers must complete the Master List and include student addresses for submitted artworks. Exhibition notifications will be mailed to the students and their families based on addresses provided by teachers.

RECOGNITION

Each student will receive a Certificate of Merit recognizing the display of their artwork in the Student Art Exhibition at the Woodson Art Museum.

LOGISTICS

Display

- All two-dimensional artwork must be mounted. Matted artwork must be secured to sturdy backing boards, such as corrugated cardboard or matboard. Tagboard, posterboard, or glass is not acceptable.
- Artwork cannot exceed 36 inches in any direction and cannot exceed 25 pounds.

Delivery

- All artwork must be delivered by art educators unless other arrangements are made with Student Art Exhibition Coordinator Emily Wesenick, 715.845.7010 or ewesenick@lywam.org.
- Artwork deliveries will be accepted during designated hours between January 12-25, in person at the Museum OR artwork may be shipped prepaid by either UPS or US Mail. Contact Emily Wesenick if artwork will be shipped, or with questions regarding drop-off, mounting, and matting.
- Artwork that does not meet the above criteria will not be accepted.
