Woodson Art Museum Terms & Conditions

While the details enumerated below are generally understood by those participating in group-organized travel, they are included to prevent misunderstandings and to ensure the best possible experience.

1. Every effort is made to carry out each travel program as planned. However, the nature of travel is unpredictable and changes are often inevitable. If modifications are made, the Woodson Art Museum is committed to delivering experiences as outstanding as those originally planned.
2. To enjoy travel experiences to the fullest, good physical and mental health are essential. If you require special dietary accommodations or other assistance, please be certain to communicate all needs to the Woodson Art Museum in advance of departure. [Note: health information shared with the Woodson Art Museum is protected and treated as confidential.]
3. For this travel experience, the Woodson Art Museum manages the logistics with respect to transportation, hotels, food, attraction visits and guides, and overall tour operation. The Woodson Art Museum cannot accept responsibility for loss, damage, injury, accident, delay or irregularity, expense or liability caused by on-site vehicle transportation negligence or default of independent sub-contractors, their employees, agents, or representatives.
4. The Woodson Art Museum cannot accept responsibility for losses or delays arising from sickness, pilferage, acts of terrorism, weather conditions, or acts of God. Baggage is carried entirely at the owner's risk.
5. All services are subject to the laws of the destination.

Responsibility Statement and Liability Disclaimer

Please Read Carefully

This trip is managed by the Woodson Art Museum. The Museum acts only as an agent for the respective third-party suppliers of goods and services (e.g., hotels, bus companies, local tours, etc.) by making arrangements for transportation, accommodations, and other services.

The Woodson Art Museum does not control, own, or operate these suppliers. The suppliers are independent contractors. The Woodson Art Museum shall not be held liable for personal injury, death, loss, baggage claims, damage, accident, delay, and/or irregularity arising out of any act or omission of these suppliers, their employees, agents, or representatives. Further, the Woodson Art Museum shall not be held responsible for losses or delays arising from sickness, pilferage, acts of terrorism, weather conditions, and/or acts of God. All such losses or expenses shall be borne by the program participant.

The Woodson Art Museum reserves the right to cancel any trip prior to departure in which case the entire payment will be refunded without further obligation. The Woodson Art Museum also reserves the right, without penalty, to withdraw the trip, to decline to accept any person as a participant in a tour, or to require any participant to withdraw from the tour at any time, when such action is determined by staff to be in the best interests of the health, safety, or general welfare of the group, or the individual participant, subject only to the requirement that the recoverable portion of the total amount paid that corresponds to the cost of unused services and accommodations be refunded, if any.

The Woodson Art Museum reserves the right, without penalty, to make changes in the published itinerary whenever, in their judgment, conditions warrant, or if they deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience, or safety of tour participants. Dates, schedules, program details, and costs, although provided in good faith based on information available at the time of announcement of the trip, are subject to change and revision.

The Woodson Art Museum shall not be liable for baggage and personal effects, which are at all times the sole responsibility of the participant. Participants are encouraged to purchase travel insurance.

All services are subject to the laws of the country in which they are rendered.
